

PEOs

- Graduates will possess the fundamental knowledge, theoretical background and technical skills to lead a successful career in diverse domains.
- Graduates will analyse real life problems and design technically sound, economically feasible and socially acceptable solutions.
- Graduates will exhibit professionalism, ethics, teamwork, social awareness and agility through life-long learning.

PSOs

- Explain and apply appropriate telecommunication technologies and employ appropriate methodologies to help an individual or organization achieve its goals and objectives
- Manage the telecommunication technology resources of an individual or organization
- Anticipate the changing direction and current trends in telecommunication engineering and evaluate and communicate the likely utility of new technologies to an individual or organization
- Develop telecommunication systems that would perform tasks related to E-governance and/or Health Care Management

POs

- Graduates will be able to independently carry out research / investigation and development work to solve practical problems
- Graduates will be able to write and present a substantial technical report / document
- Graduates will be able to demonstrate a degree of mastery over the area as per the specialization of the program. The mastery should be at a level higher than the requirements in the appropriate bachelor program.
- Graduates will foster analytical and critical thinking abilities for providing solutions to real life challenges in telecommunication.
- Graduates will exhibit their design skills pertaining to green communication